

- “...do whatever is necessary to make New Hampshire a right-to-work state...It's pretty clear that those states that have right-to-work legislation are able to add employment...” – Mitt Romney, Concord Monitor, 8/9/11
- “If you really want to put a magnet for jobs in New Hampshire, you make this a right-to-work state.” – Rick Perry, Foster's Daily Democrat, 10/2/11
- “Right-to-work legislation shouldn't generate controversy. The law would protect a worker's basic right to freedom of association by preventing individuals from being forced to give part of their paycheck to a union for the privilege of going to work. In this country, no one should be forced to join or finance a private political organization against his or her will; that is the basic truth that the union bosses are attempting to cloud in this debate.”
– Jon Huntsman op-ed for the Union Leader, published 8/12/11
- “You see, it's a proven fact that right-to-work states have created more jobs ... Facts are stubborn things.”—Michele Bachmann, address to New Hampshire House of Representatives, 11/12/11
- “I strongly support the right of workers to organize on their own and that's why I support right to work.” – Newt Gingrich, address to New Hampshire House of Representatives, 11/12/11
- “I believe in right-to-work, and I hope that New Hampshire is able to get it passed.” – Herman Cain, WMUR/CNN Debate, 6/13/11
