

Your Union Family

Local 1984 is an important part of the broader labor movement. Here's how we fit in:

YOUR LOCAL UNION: LOCAL 1984

SEIU is made up of more than 300 local unions. You belong to SEIU Local 1984, which is headquartered in Concord. Local 1984 is made up of the state workforce in New Hampshire, as well as a significant number of county, municipal, and private sector employees. For decades before we became a part of SEIU, we were the State Employees' Association of New Hampshire (the "S.E.A."), an identity we maintain today.

Accomplishments of Local 1984

Over the years, Local 1984 has worked hard on your behalf to win better wages, benefits, and working conditions. Some major accomplishments include:

- Maintaining fully paid health insurance premiums
- Prescription coverage for state employees
- Dental coverage for state employees
- Access to sick leave and vacation for new employees
- Sick leave donation program
- Becoming the largest and fastest-growing AFL-CIO union in the state

SERVICE EMPLOYEES INTERNATIONAL UNION

Headquartered in Washington, DC, the 1.5 million-member Service Employees International Union represents workers throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. SEIU is the largest and fastest growing union in North America. The International office provides resources to local unions, as well as help and direction on major national campaigns.

International Officers

Andrew L. Stern, International President
Anna Berger, International Secretary-Treasurer

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR – CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS (AFL-CIO)

The AFL-CIO is the umbrella organization for the major unions in the United States. The AFL-CIO coordinates activities between the different unions, and provides resources and aid in crucial bargaining, organizing and legislative battles. With SEIU's former President, John Sweeney, at the helm, the AFL-CIO has helped breathe new life into the labor movement and is now coordinating organizing and legislative efforts on behalf of working people throughout the country. SEIU Local 1984 is the largest union in the New Hampshire AFL-CIO.